Lady Gaga's Monster Hot 100 Streak

The bad news: Lady Gaga's career-opening streak of 11 consecutive top 10 singles (promoted to radio) on the Billboard Hot 100 appears to have ended.

The good news: The run is tied for the best ever among brand-new artists.

Barring a rebound, Gaga's current single, "Marry the Night," will likely fall short of the top 10 on the Hot 100, which measures radio airplay and sales using Nielsen BDS and SoundScan data, respectively, and online streaming. After reaching a peak of No. 29 four weeks ago, the song has since slipped to No. 39.

At Gaga's home radio format, the song has similarly crested. "Marry" roared to No. 14 on Mainstream Top 40 in just four weeks but stalled between that rank and No. 16 for five frames. This week, it falls to No. 24.

Download sales have subsided, too, with the track having peaked at No. 30 on Billboard's Hot Digital Songs survey four weeks ago.

Still, with her first 11 singles reaching the Hot 100's top tier—from "Just Dance," her first of three No. 1s on the tally, through the No. 6-peaking "You and I" in September—Gaga matched Mariah Carey (1990-94) for the most consecutive top 10 singles from the launch of an artist's career. (Among soloists with prior chart histories in groups, only two have begun more impressively: Lionel Richie linked 13 straight top 10s after departing the Commodores and George Michael scored 12 solo top 10s during and after his time as half of Wham.)

Despite the apparent end of her chart streak, Gaga's career momentum remains robust. Her stats include 42 million downloads sold, according to SoundScan; 47 million Facebook likes; 18 million Twitter followers; and, her recent coronation as the AP's Entertainer of the Year for 2011.

To borrow a lyric from "Marry" that may best sum up Lady Gaga's career to date: "I'm a winner."

Among Lady Gaga's many honors, her Born This Way was voted favorite album at last week's People's Choice Awards. The set has sold 2.1 million copies, according to Nielsen SoundScan.

Billboard's Mainstream Top 40, Rhythmic and Adult Top 40 charts rank total weekly plays (for the week ending Sunday) on 141, 70 and 87 stations, respectively, as monitored 24 hours a day, seven days a week by Nielsen BDS. Titles receive bullets if even or gaining in weekly plays. Average Plays per Station reflects Mainstream Top 40 titles' weekly plays totals divided by the number of stations on which they received airplay in the chart's tracking week. Greatest Gainers reflect titles with the top weekly increases in plays. New and Active lists the top titles gaining in plays below the Mainstream Top 40 chart. Chart data presented in this update is preliminary and subject to change, pending final review by Billboard and BDS. Finalized charts can be viewed on Monday afternoon via Nielsen BDS' subscription platforms or via subscription to www.billboardplus.com. © 2012, Prometheus Global Media, LLC and Nielsen BDS, Inc.
